What is workplace violence?

Workplace violence is defined in the Occupational Health and Safety Act as follows:

"Workplace violence" means,

- (a) the exercise of physical force by a person against a worker, in a workplace, that causes or could cause physical injury to the worker,
- (b) an attempt to exercise physical force against a worker, in a workplace, that could cause physical injury to the worker,
- (c) a statement or behaviour that it is reasonable for a worker to interpret as a threat to exercise physical force against the worker, in a workplace, that could cause physical injury to the worker.

PLEASE SEE OVER

Penalty

An employee who subjects another employee to workplace violence may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including the termination of his/her employment.

A student who subjects any employee to workplace violence will be subject to penalties under the Code of Student Conduct.

Others who subject any employee to workplace harassment will be subject to penalties that are appropriate in view of their relationship to the University.

Program

The University shall develop and maintain a program to implement this Policy.
