

2014-2015 MSE Departmental Awards

Application – extended deadline – August 8, 2014

(open to visa/domestic MAsc/PhD)

Indicate the awards for which you are eligible and would like your application to be considered.

Application package (submit to Maria):

1. Application
2. Single page explanation of how your research fulfills the general restrictions outlined below – include a title of your research area.
3. Unofficial ROSI transcript
4. CV

NOTE: only those awards classified as “Need-based” require a completed Financial Need Assessment Form

	Last Name:	First Name:	Student #:
X	AWARD NAME	GENERAL RESTRICTIONS	CLASSIFICATION
	Haultain Fellowship $10,000.00	MSE student carrying out research in Mineral or Materials Science .	Merit based
	Lloyd and Frankie Pidgeon Fellowship $10,000.00	MSE 3 rd or 4 th year doctoral student in extractive metallurgy studies, not necessarily non-ferrous metals	Need-based + merit
	Atsumi Ohno Scholarship $10,000.00	MSE student - preference given to those engaged in studies of: 1) solidification of metals or 2) thermochemistry of metallurgical systems	Need-based + merit
	Rio Tinto Alcan Research Fellowship $18,000.00	Raw Materials; Smelting Process; Materials; Aluminum metallurgy; Environment; Analytical Techniques; Modelling & Information Systems	Merit based
	Patino Mining Corporation Research Fellowship $10,000.00	MAsc/PhD in field of mineral processing	Merit based
	U.S. Steel Canada Graduate Fellowship $18,000.00	MSE student conducting steel-related research	Need-based +merit

Signature: _____ Date: _____