

2018-2019 MSE Departmental Awards

Application – deadline – June 22, 2018

(open to visa/domestic MAsc/PhD)

(value of awards $4,000 - $10,000)

Last Name:	First Name:	Student #:
------------	-------------	------------

Application package (submit to Maria):

1. Application
2. Single page explanation of how your research fulfills the general restrictions outlined below – include a title for your research area.
3. Unofficial ACORN/ROSI transcript
4. CV

NOTE: only those awards classified as “Need-based” require a completed Financial Need Assessment Form

Indicate the awards for which you are eligible and would like your application to be considered.

X	AWARD NAME	GENERAL RESTRICTIONS	CLASSIFICATION
	Atsumi Ohno Scholarship	MSE student - preference given to those engaged in studies of: 1) solidification of metals; or, 2) thermochemistry of metallurgical systems	Need-based + merit
	Centennial International Graduate Scholarship	MSE (visa PhD student only) carrying out research in Materials Science	Merit based
	Haultain Fellowship	MSE student carrying out research in Mineral or Materials Science	Merit based
	Lloyd and Frankie Pidgeon Fellowship	MSE 3 rd or 4 th year doctoral student in extractive metallurgy studies, not necessarily non-ferrous metals	Need-based + merit
	Patino Mining Corporation Research Fellowship	MSE student in field of mineral processing	Merit based
	U.S. Steel Canada Graduate Fellowship	MSE student conducting steel-related research	Need-based + merit

Signature: _____ Date: _____