

Award Name	Description	Citizenship	Nature of Award
Atsumi Ohno Scholarship	To be awarded to graduate students in MSE, with a priority for a student engaged in research in the field of solidification of metals or thermochemistry of metallurgical systems. If in any given year no student with these research focus applies, the scholarship may be awarded at the discretion of the Department.	Domestic; International	Academic Merit, Financial Need
Brij and Pushpa Seth Graduate Merit Award	To be awarded based on academic merit to MSE graduate or post-doctoral students carrying out research in accelerated high temperature materials development using predictive techniques.	Domestic; International	Academic Merit
Centennial International Graduate Scholarship	To be awarded to international PhD students in MSE based on academic excellence and a strong commitment to pursuing innovative solutions.	International	Academic Merit
Haultain Fellowship	To be awarded based on academic merit to MSE graduate students (MAsc or PhD) carrying out research in Mineral Engineering or Materials Science. Preference will be given to students in the research field of Mineral Engineering.	Domestic; International	Academic Merit
Lloyd and Frankie Pidgeon Fellowship	To be awarded, based on financial need and merits, to MAsc or PhD graduate student in MSE. Preference will be given to students strongly focused on studies in extractive metallurgy, although not necessarily tied to non-ferrous metals.	Domestic; International	Academic Merit, Financial Need
U.S. Steel Canada Graduate Fellowship	To be awarded, based on financial need and merits, to a graduate student in MSE who is conducting steel- related research.	Domestic; International	Academic Merit, Financial Need
Patino Mining Corporation Research Fellowship	To be awarded to an outstanding graduate of a recognized university who is proceeding to either a Master's or a Doctoral degree in the field of mineral processing or extractive metallurgy in MSE	Domestic; International	Academic Merit
FASE Graduate Student Endowment Fund	To be awarded to doctoral-stream graduate students in	Domestic;	Academic Merit

	FASE based on academic merit.	International
Frank Howard Guest Graduate Bursary	To be awarded to graduate students in FASE based on academic merit and financial need	Domestic; International	Academic Merit, Financial Need

Source: SGS Award explorer

